

Introduction to Contracts

Ms. Thompson

- Across
- 9 Parties enter _____ if the contract includes a promise in exchange for a promise
- 10 An agreement that cannot be enforced is a _____ and is not really a contract at all
- 11 Has all the necessary elements of an enforceable contract
- 12 A(n) _____ requires a special form or method of creation to be enforceable
- 13 If a contract has not been fully performed it is called a(n) _____
- 14 The party who makes the offer

- Down
- 1 Is an obligation by law, not by mutual agreement
- 2 The parties enter a _____ if the contract includes a promise for an act
- 3 A declaration that something will or will not happen in the future
- 4 There are two parties to a contract, the _____ is the person to whom the offer is made
- 5 Occurs when one of the parties fails to keep the promises made
- 6 A contract that is oral and/or written that form is a(n) _____; it is not implied from the circumstances
- 7 A _____ is the party to a contract that makes a promise to do something
- 8 A(n) _____ is a legally enforceable agreement to do or not do a specified thing
